

Charlotte Troop Artist

“I just love colour; strong colours and I love working on large canvases. I love sharing my artwork, I want to carry on with my art and exhibit”

My name is Charlotte Troop and I'm an artist.

As a former member of Artists First, I have exhibited and sold my work for many years. My work can be seen on several websites: www.artistsfirst.org.uk www.outsidein.org.uk and on Instagram @beyondartistsfirst

I have taken part in many workshops and exhibition talks and have made films as part of Artists First. If you visit the Artists First website, you can see and hear me talk about my work and why art has always been important to me.

Through Artists First, my work has been chosen to be part of the National Disability Art Collection and Archive www.ndaca.org.uk , something I'm really proud of.

If you want to find out more about my work, commission or buy my art please contact: apharris58@outlook.com for further details.

“Charlotte’s art absolutely reflects her as a person. It has a warmth and openness that belies a complexity of composition and structure. As a Self-Taught artist she is a real example of what can be achieved through hard work and determination.

Her use of strong fluid line and colour mean her compositions engage you immediately but reward you the more time you invest in them.

Charlotte’s art enhances the art world and her subtlety challenges who can make art. She’s still experimenting & exploring with her art, and long may this continue”
